

Boston College Parents' Weekend 2011 Nearby Hotels

Reservations for Parents' Weekend should be made as soon as possible since the fall is a busy time of year, and many colleges in the area use the same hotels.

Please note that Boston College does not review the accommodations of the following hotels and is only providing a list of hotels that are nearby. Please contact the hotel for rates and further information.

The list is alphabetical and notations have been made to the right if the hotel is accessible via the MBTA (public transportation).
