May 6 – 15, 2011

From approximately $4995 plus air

150-175 WORD COPY

Discover the living heritage of the Celtic people on this eight-night cruise from the ancient Norman port of Honfleur, past the misty, legend-haunted islands of the Celtic and Irish Seas, to Scotland's historic capital of Edinburgh. By special arrangement, enjoy enriching lectures by esteemed political scientist and grandson of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, David Eisenhower, and by notable author and granddaughter of Sir Winston Churchill, Celia Sandys. Aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe M.S. LE BOREAL, explore more than 4,000 years of history and hundreds of miles of austere natural beauty. Commemorate the fallen heroes of World War II at the D-Day landing beaches, admire the lavish artistry of the 9th-century Book of Kells in Dublin and visit the impregnable 700-year-old Caernarfon Castle. Drive through the breathtaking Snowdonia Mountains and find serenity in the stark beauty and solitude of Scotland's Inner Hebrides and Orkney Islands. Extend your journey with the two-night Pre-Cruise Option in Paris, "the City of Light," and/or the two-night Post-Cruise Option in Edinburgh, "the Athens of the North."

M.S. LE BOREAL

The M.S. LE BOREAL has been specially engineered by the finest Italian shipbuilders to incorporate the latest in ship design and environmental technology, ensuring the ultimate cruise experience in safety and comfort.

Spacious accommodations—The ship can accommodate between 224 and 264 passengers in 112 to 132 exceptionally large staterooms and suites ranging in size from 200 square feet to 484 square feet. Ninety-five percent of the staterooms feature private balconies.

Flexible room configurations—LE BOREAL’s highly innovative flexible room configurations provide the unique ability to seamlessly transform 40 Deluxe Staterooms into 20 exquisite Prestige Suites using advanced technology that ensures that these reconfigurations are not discernable. These configurations enable a larger number of passengers to travel in the luxury of a 398-square-foot Prestige Suite, while affording the flexibility to accommodate more passengers when needed.

Elegant Dining Experience—International and local cuisine is served in the stylish, spacious Dining Room in single, unassigned seatings. Passengers may also enjoy dining alfresco in the casual indoor-outdoor Grill Restaurant or from 24-hour Room Service. Continental and buffet breakfast, buffet lunch, afternoon tea, a three-course dinner and a late-evening snack are served daily. House wine and beer are included with lunch and dinner. Bar service is available on the Sun Deck.

Exceptional public amenities—An exquisite state of the art theater equipped with a modern audio-visual system provides a perfect venue for lectures, film screenings and cultural performances. Additional facilities include the stylish 3,000-square-foot Main Lounge complete with dance floor and the Panoramic lounge designed specifically to offer breathtaking views of passing scenery. The M.S. LE BOREAL also has a gift shop, library, beauty salon, laundry services, elevators and an infirmary.

Enhanced Internet services—The M.S. LE BOREAL will offer modern computer and Internet capabilities, including WiFi Internet access in each stateroom and an Internet Salon offering Internet access and computer stations for personal use.

World-class recreational facilities—Fitness and wellness areas include an inviting spa, Turkish bath-style steam room, swimming pool and full range of fitness equipment.

Advanced navigational and environmental technology—This 466-foot ship incorporates the latest “Cleanship” standards and will be constructed as fully operational expedition vessels featuring an advanced navigational system and the unique dynamic positioning system. It will be equipped with a fleet of sturdy Zodiac landing craft in addition to two large tenders, ideal for shore excursions.
