*60 employers, summer
and post-graduation jobs!
All majors and class years are welcome!*

Welcome to the 2014 Boston College K-12 Education Career Fair!

HOW TO WORK THE FAIR

1. Make a list of the schools or districts you would most like to speak with.
2. Read those schools' profiles in this program (and read some of their literature or look at their websites) – write down any questions you would like to ask.
3. Rehearse an introduction that includes your name, degree and major, your goals (e.g. “a job teaching in a 3rd, 4th, or 5th grade classroom in a progressive charter school”), and your strengths as a teacher or as a person who enjoys working with young people.
4. Have conversations!
5. Get business cards or names, titles and email addresses, follow up with thank you notes.
6. NEED ASSISTANCE or ADVICE? Come speak with us at the Career Center Help Table.

Our vision is for all children to excel.

BELL exists to transform the academic achievements, self-confidence, and life trajectories of children living in under-resourced, urban communities.

Because we believe in the tremendous potential of all children to excel, we recognize them as scholars.

We pursue our mission through two educational programs, BELL Summer and BELL After School. Through these learning experiences, students benefit from small-group academic instruction, mentorship, a wide range of enrichment activities, and community engagement.

BELL works to ensure all children have the learning opportunities they need to fulfill their potential in school and in

Blueprint Schools Network (Blueprint) is a nonprofit organization based in Massachusetts. Our work with schools around the country has shown that positive change is possible when five core strategies for school improvement are implemented together as a comprehensive package. These strategies include:

1. Ensuring every student has an excellent teacher and a school leader committed to their success;
2. Setting clear, consistent standards for academic achievement and establishing a school-wide focus on preparing all students for college;
3. Devoting more time in the school day to teaching and learning;
4. Providing daily, small group tutoring to students using highly qualified and well-trained instructors; and
5. Collecting assessment data frequently to monitor each student's...

BCCS was founded in 1998 with a simple yet ambitious mission: to prepare each student for college. We have grown from 120 students in grades 5 through 7 to over 600 students in grades 5 through 12.

- 100% of BCCS's 10 graduating classes have been accepted to college. The majority of our students will be the first in their families to earn college degrees.
- In 2013, 100% of BCCS students scored Advanced or Proficient on the 10th grade Math and ELA MCAS exams, ranking us as first in the state on both exams. Also, 100% of BCCS students scored Advanced or Proficient on the 9th grade Physics MCAS exam. BCCS is the only public, non-exam school in the state in which 100% of students have passed the 10th grade Math MCAS for the past 11 years, and over 99% of BCCS students have passed...

BOSTON • CAMBRIDGE

Breakthrough Greater Boston (BTGB) is a successful college access and teacher training program. Breakthrough offers six years of academic enrichment and college preparation to middle and high school students with high potential but limited opportunities. Simultaneously, BTGB recruits, trains and inspires a diverse cohort of high achieving undergraduate and high school students to become the next generation of urban teachers. Using a Students Teaching Students model, BTGB provides engaging, tuition-free academic programming in the summer and after school. Our younger students gain the skills and motivation to succeed in rigorous high school courses and, ultimately, in college. Meanwhile, our teachers gain practical hands-on experience, research-based training and coaching from profes...

City Year was founded in 1988 on the belief that young people can change the world. City Year is an education focused, nonprofit organization that unites young people of all backgrounds for a year of full-time service to keep students in school and on track to graduation. At City Year's 25 urban locations across the United States and 2 international affiliates, teams of trained young people called corps members serve full-time in schools for the academic year as tutors, mentors and role models. By focusing on attendance, behavior and course performance, which identify students who are at risk of dropping out, corps members are uniquely able to help students and schools succeed.

Community Charter School of Cambridge (CCSC) is a charter public school. Located in the Kendall Square area near MIT, the school serves 360 students in grades 7-12. Starting in 2014-15, CCSC will offer 6th grade.

3.19.2014

TABLE #34

Open since 2005, CCSC provides a rigorous academic program that places all students on the pathway to college success. The CCSC academic program is demanding, and students are held to very high standards for both academics and behavior. The school's small size and low student-faculty ratio ensure that every student is well known to and supported by a dedicated and skilled corps of teachers and administrators.

Measures of Success

CCSC earned a Level 1 rating (the highest possible) in 2013 and 2012.

Match Education is a national education nonprofit, based in Boston. We operate a growing portfolio of high-performing and innovative urban charter schools. Our schools are widely recognized for their success in preparing low-income students for success in four-year colleges. We provide high-dosage tutoring to each of our students through the Match Corps, a post-graduate service fellowship for individuals interested in committing a year of service to inner-city schools. Match Education also trains teachers for urban classrooms and operates a fully sanctioned graduate school of education through our Match Teacher Residency program. We seek to train the best rookie teachers in the country and, over time, to develop new insight into the nature of effective teaching and teacher training.
